

Personally approved and recommended by His Holiness the Dalai Lama

The book is the first children's/juvenile and parents' book – a book for conversations and dialogue with the aim of promoting the dialogue between children and adults – a story in a series of many that has been personally recommended by His Holiness the Dalai Lama.

The book is in 5 languages: English, Danish, Spanish, French and German.

The book is a hope that we will all start afresh in our dialogues between children/youth/adults and go back to the real values.

Limited 1st edition on the occasion of His Holiness the Dalai Lama's visit to Denmark, May 2009. For each copy sold an amount will be donated to His Holiness the Dalai Lama's Charity.

Office of His Holiness the Dalai Lama

His Holiness the Dalai Lama very much appreciates the story you have written, "Our Children-the Hope of the World" based on the teachings that His Holiness gave in June 2003, in Denmark. His Holiness is particularly happy to learn of the story you have written for children because He has always believed that the inculcation of positive human values should be done from a young age. Many children will be able to learn how to develop positive human thinking through this story.

His Holiness the Dalai Lama approves of your story.
