AN OUTDOOR KITCHEN FOR LIFE

The background of the advertisement is a photograph of an outdoor kitchen area. On the left, a dark wooden wall features a white countertop with a sink, a soap dispenser, and a bar of soap. To the right, a light-colored wooden table holds a large potted plant with green leaves. The overall aesthetic is modern and minimalist, blending with nature.

At Norrvik, we believe outdoor living is an extension of your home — a space where design meets nature in perfect harmony. Inspired by the simplicity and elegance of Danish design, our outdoor kitchens combine form and function to create spaces that are both practical and timeless.

Every kitchen we create is built to endure all seasons, ensuring long-lasting quality with minimal upkeep. Our designs feature clean lines, matte finishes, and soft, rounded edges, delivering a modern aesthetic that seamlessly blends into any outdoor setting.

CREATE A FULLY FUNCTIONAL OUTDOOR KITCHEN

- AN EXPERIENCE BEYOND
THE ORDINARY

Imagine an outdoor kitchen with an integrated sink and grill – designed to transform everyday cooking into a luxurious experience under the open sky. Our design seamlessly combines aesthetics and functionality, allowing you to effortlessly prepare everything from fresh ingredients to a perfectly grilled meal, all without compromising on comfort or style.

We believe outdoor cooking should be enjoyable, so our outdoor kitchen features a thoughtfully designed layout with elegant aesthetics and practical storage solutions. With full space for your cooking essentials and dining ware, everything stays protected and organized, giving you peace of mind during your culinary adventures.

BRINGING PEOPLE TOGETHER FOR OURDOOR COOKING

OUTDOOR LIVING PERFECTED

GARDENING, COOKING & GATHERING

With Norrvik, your outdoor area transforms into more than just a kitchen—it becomes a hub where gardening, cooking, and gathering blend seamlessly. Whether tending to fresh herbs for your recipes or hosting memorable get-togethers, our designs provide the perfect balance of aesthetics and practicality.

Adequate countertop space is essential for a smooth outdoor cooking experience. That's why Norrvik's composite countertops are the ideal choice. They're durable, stain-resistant, low-maintenance, and provide plenty of room for prep, storage, and serving, making them a versatile addition to your outdoor space.

A SPACE TO GATHER, COOK, AND MAKE LASTING MEMORIES.

Envision an outdoor kitchen equipped with an integrated sink, crafted to make everyday culinary activities a pleasure. Our minimalist design, characterized by matte surfaces and rounded edges, offers a modern and timeless aesthetic to any outdoor setting. With Norvik, you can effortlessly prepare everything from fresh ingredients to perfectly grilled meals, without compromising on comfort or style.

The countertops, crafted from advanced composite materials using high-pressure and heat technology, are scratch, cut, and heat-resistant. This makes them ideal for everything from prepping fresh herbs to grilling and serving meals. They are exceptionally easy to clean and maintain, allowing you to focus on enjoying your time with loved ones. For added convenience, countertops with sinks include a pre-drilled hole for a faucet.

MATERIALS

All our outdoor kitchens are made from powder-coated zinc magnesium and Aluzinc to ensure the highest quality and a long lifespan.

COUNTERTOP

The countertop is made of composite material based on technology that uses pressure and high heat to create unique durability. It is scratch- and cut-resistant, heat-resistant, and incredibly easy to clean and maintain with regular cleaning.

Countertops with sinks include a pre-drilled hole for a faucet.

The countertop also comes in Terrazzo in same quality.

When choosing a Terrazzo countertop with a sink, it will always be in stainless steel.

SINK

The sink is integrated into the countertop, creating a seamless look. It is also possible to choose a stainless steel sink that is undermounted. The sink can be placed on either the right or left side. Please note that the watertap is not included.

MAINTENANCE

With an outdoor kitchen from Norrvik, maintenance is minimal.

The materials are weather-resistant, so there's no need for sanding, painting, or other upkeep. Simply clean it as you would clean your indoor kitchen.

We offer four distinct kitchen each designed to serve different purposes and enhance your outdoor cooking experience
